

How to Become a Member

Becoming a member of the European Society of Culture (SEC) means contributing to the development of a European space for reflection in which people with deeply different political convictions can meet, exchange views and work together.

Who can join?

Membership is open to anyone interested in:

- culture and intellectual reflection;
- contemporary European issues;
- dialogue between different disciplines and perspectives;
- the activities of the European Society of Culture.

What does membership offer?

Becoming a member allows you, in particular, to:

- support the SEC's activities and publications;
- receive information about initiatives, meetings and conferences;
- participate in the life and activities of the Society;
- receive or access the journal Comprendre, according to the applicable arrangements.

How to join?

Membership of the European Society of Culture is valid for one year.

Membership requires the payment of an annual membership fee. Information on the membership procedure, renewal and arrangements for receiving publications will be provided when you apply.

Would you like to become a member of the SEC?

Please complete the membership form so that we can contact you, provide you with all the necessary information and complete the registration process.

By filling this form and in accordance with the measures laid down in Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (General Data Protection Regulation), you agree to the following:

- SEC is the sole controller of the data provided;
- SEC will use your personal data (i.e., name, email address and company/Institution information) to process your membership request and to send you information related to the SEC Network. This information will not be shared with any third party without your personal consent.
- To support collaboration and networking among the SEC members, we would like to share your contact email with the SEC Community (members only). If you prefer not to share your personal or direct email, you may provide a generic institutional contact email (e.g. info@societacultura.it) instead.
